Perspective From 1700 A.D.

. . . one that is able to instruct others, and who has a facility or aptness to it, neither an ignorant nor yet a lazy man.

Matthew Poole, 1700 A.D.

Perspective From 1840 A.D.

As the principal business of an [elder] is to teach, or to communicate . . . the knowledge of the truth, the necessity of this qualification is obvious. He is one . . . who is qualified to impart to others on the doctrines . . . and he is industrious, and self-denying, and loves to study in order to know God . . .

Albert Barnes, 1840 A.D.

Perspective From 1900s A.D.

This is something I emphasize, because I do not feel any man ought to be an elder in a church unless he can teach the Word of God. I used to say to my church officers that I wished it was possible to give a theological exam to each one of them to determine if he was qualified to be an officer.

Encouragements For Growth

Believers . . . “be persuaded and yield”

How Shall We Respond?

1. Pray for guidance in selecting elders
2. Seek to become a “spiritual father in the faith”
